TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St. Louis, "the future great City of the world." This line, the has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air brake.

ST. LOUIS & SOUTHEASTERN RAILWAY,

It is positively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

The "St. Louis & Southeastern"

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourselves and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to C. S BARRETT, Southern Passenger Agent, Postoffice Box 242, Chattanooga Tenn., or to the undersigned.

W B DAVENPORT,
General Ticket Agent, St. Louis.

The Homicide Last Night.

By a reference to our local columns' it will be seen that another careless handling of firearms has resulted in death. It is a lesson which, as thousands like it, will be passed unheeded by all who hear it. This shocking homicide may be traced to a habit which the elders of the miserable boys who were concerned in this affair, indulge in. The possession of a pistol has become a distinguishing mark of boys of all kinds. Adolescence leaps the period which divides it from manhood by owning an offensive weapon, and the child who can command a pistol, towers above the mental and physical stature of his fellows.

Cannot an intelligent and humane public sentiment do something to do away with this abominable practice.—The remedy is in the hands of parents. Will they exercise it?

Readings in Public.

Wilkie Collins' public readings in this country are not as largely attended as was expected by his admirers when his visit was heralded. Taking Dickens' career as a successful experiment upon the golosity of the American people for European celebrities, Mr. Collins entered upon the field, and finds himself talking to empty benches.

In truth, we would respectfully inquire if there is not a great deal of humbug about these public readings. It does not seem worth while to pay a dollar for a seat, go to the trouble of getting up one's self for an appearance in public, and sit bolt upright for an hour to hear extracts read, when the same or less money would buy the entire book, which could be enjoyed at one's convenience. A person of ordinary imagination ought to be able to enjoy a book from reading it as much as hearing it read.

As for Mr. Collins he is a writer of great power, and he enjoys great fame in literature which is his legitimate sphere, but when he appears as a reader, he is following what is but an evanescent practice, and below the dignity of a member of the Republic of letters.

The Raleigh News says: At Gaston, on Friday, Lady Gee, the wife of Guilford Gee, (col.,) accidentally shot herself through the arm just above the wrist while handing the gun to her husband to shoot a hawk. The gun was loaded with small shot, and nearly tore the arm off. The hand was hanging merely by shreds. Dr. L. Julien Picot, of Lilleton, amputated the forearm, assisted by Dr. Isaac Green, of Weldon. When last heard from she was doing well. It is a very respectable family and has the sympathy of many friends.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

[Condensed from the Raleigh News.]

EIGHTEENTH DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

SENATE.

MONDAY, Dec. 8.

Senate met at 10 o'clock, Lieut. Governor in the Chair.

Journal of Saturday read and approved.

Introduction of Bills.

By Mr. Ransom, a bill to confirm the sale of public lands to S. T, Carrow, (being the lands sold by the Educational Board.)

By Mr. Ellis, of Columbus, a bill for the support, improvement, repairs and payment of the debt of the Insane Asylum—provides for an appropriation of $65,000. Placed on Calendar.

Motions and Resolutions.

On motion the Senator from New Hanover was granted three days leave of absence.

Messages Received.

From the House, a resolution denunciatory of the back salary grab, censuring the bill and those who voted for it.

Mr. Harriss, of Wake offered an amendment to strike out the clause censuring the President.

Mr. Gudger was opposed to the amendment.

Mr. Ellis, of Columbus, was opposed to the consumption of time in this General Assembly by discussing and entertaining resolutions of this character.

The yeas and nays were called, on the amendment of Senator Harriss to strike out the clause in regard to the Executive, and the amendment was lost by the following vote:—Ayes, 14; nays, 21.

The vote then occurred on the passage of the resolution, which was adopted by the following vote:—Ayes, 21; nays, 10.

A number of bills and resolutions were received from the House asking the concurrence of the Senate, which were appropriately referred.

Rules Suspended.

On motion of Mr. Humphrey, the bill extending the charter of the Atlantic Coast Railroad, was taken up and passed its several readings under a suspension of the rules.

Calendar.

The bill to insure the completion of the Western railroad was taken up on its third reading.

On motion of Mr. Morehead, of Guilford, the further consideration of the bill was postponed till Wednesday next and made the special order for that day at 12 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

At 11 Mr. Speaker Robinson called the House to order.

Journal of Saturday read and approved.

Several petitions were presented and disposed of.

By Mr. Norfleet, a bill declaring certain larcenies misdemeanors, and giving Justices of the Peace jurisdiction of the same. Referred.

By Mr. Gilbert, a bill to make the attendance upon the Public Schools of the State obligatory. Referred.

By Mr. Trivett, a bill to authorize the entry of swamp lands on the same terms as other lands. Referred.

A message was received from the Senate refusing to concur in the House amendment to adjourn sine die on the 15th inst., and asking a Committee of conference. The proposition for a Committee of Conference was concurred in.

Special Order.

The bill to amend chapter 60, sections 27 and 28, Battle's Revisal so as to allow insolvents who may be imprisoned as putative fathers of bastards, or for the fine and costs of any criminal prosecution, after remaining in prison ten days, to be discharged.

The Clerk read the unfavorable report of the Judiciary Committee, when Mr. Marler, the introducer of the bill, offered a bill to amend chapter 162, section 27, laws of 1868–'9, which strikes out the word "sixty" and substitutes the word "twenty."

The substitute was put to a vote and adopted, and the bill passed its second reading.

Under a suspension of the rules, the bill was again taken up, and passed its third reading.

On motion of Mr. Blythe, the resolution instructing the Judiciary Committee to report the true status of the Cherokee Indians in this State, and whether any further legislation is needed for their protection, was taken up and adopted.

The bill to open the Catawba river to the free passage of fish, was taken up and, on motion of Mr. Reid, of Mecklenburg, was laid on the table.

The bill to secure the free passage of the fish in the Catawba river was taken up.

Mr. Houston moved to postpone the consideration of the bill for one week. Carried.

The bill to establish toll bridges across the French Broad river was taken up, amended so as to make it one bridge, (Alexanders) and passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Trivett, the bill to repeal section 1, chapter 97, laws of 1872–'73, in regard to the Public Printing, was taken up.

Mr. Trivett offered a substitute, letting out the contract to the lowest bidder, &c.

Mr. Bryan, of Alleghany, moved to refer to the Judiciary Committee. Carried.

The bill to amend the act incorporating the town of Lincolnton, was taken up and passed its several readings.

By Mr. Craige, a bill to amend the act in relation to the fees of county officers and clerks of the Superior Courts. Referred.

On motion of Mr. Joyner, the bill to incorporate a lodge of Odd-Fellows at Clayton, Johnston county, was taken up and passed its several readings.

The bill to allow the sale of revisions of homesteads where the owner consents in writing, was taken up and, on motion of Mr. Trivett, was laid on the table.

The bill to change the time of the meeting of the Board of County Commissioners of Carteret and the county Board of Education, was taken up and passed its several readings.

The bill to repeal chapter 69, laws of 1870–'71, was taken up and passed its several readings.

The bill to restore burnt records in the county of Watauga, was taken up and passed its several readings.

The bill to incorporate Gray's P. M. Chapel, Randolph county, was taken up and passed its several readings.

The bill for the benefit of Stanley county and others, was taken up and passed its several readings.

Adjourned.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

— The news from Mexico speaks of a provincial riot, produced by religious dissension and nativest intolerance, and of serious, and rather alarming, progress on the part of the revolutionists in Yucatan. This is not healthful for the material interests of the Republic, although it is said that the national territory is just now peaceful at all other points.

— Just now "a certain quantity of uncertain paper" is taken up discussing the momentous question as to whether Shakspeare had a scar on his forehead. It is to be hoped the disputants will preserve their temper at least in the discussion of this startling subject. We have no special interest in the decision, but shall watch the progress of the debate with much anxiety, because as soon as the scar business is settled we stand prepared to prove that the distinguished dramatist had a wart on the left side of his nose. True, it was not a big wart, and does not show up on the bust that reveals the scar; yet it was a wart, or somebody will be foresworn.

— Oatmeal is good for something besides food. All young ladies who desire white hands will please harken. It is only necessary to sleep in a pair of boxing gloves, and for a bath, oatmeal is excellent. If economically inclined and country bred, it can be fed to the horses and cattle as an oatmeal mash after being used. Oatmeal contains a small amount of oil that is good for the skin. To make the hands soft and white one of the best things is to wear at night large mittens of cloth filled with wet bran or oatmeal, and tied closely at the wrist. A lady who had the whitest, softest hands in the country confessed that she had a great deal of housework to do, and kept them white as any idler's by wearing bran mittens every night.

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION, A WEEKLY PAPER FOR Young People
AND THE FAMILY.

THE COMPANION aims to be a favorite in every family—looked for eagerly by the yonng folks, and read with interest by the older. Its purpose is to interest while it amuses; to be judicious, practical, sensible: and to have really permanent worth, while it attracts for the hour.

It is handsomely illustrated, and has for contributors some of the most attractive writers in the country. Among these are:

Edward Eggleston. Dr. I. I. Hayes,
Prof. Jas. DeMille, Louise C. Moulton,
Louisa M. Alcott, "Sophie May,"
Rebecca H. Davis, C. A. Stephens,
C. W. Flanders, Ruth Chesterfield,
S. S. Robbins, M. A. Denison.

Its reading is adapted to the old and young, is very varied in its character: sprightly and entertaining. It gives

Stories of Adventure, Stories of Home and School Life,
Letters of Travel, Tales, Poetry.
Editorials upon current Topics, Selections for Declamation,
Historical Articles, Anecdotes, Puzzles,
Biographical Sketches, Facts and Incidents.

S. HANSTEIN & Co's
New York House,
tf 15 Market st.

STABBED.—Spot, the well known porter of the Purcell House, was fatally stabbed last night by a negro man whom he essayed to arrest for attempting to steal a trunk from the foot of the buss. We learn that his condition is precarious in the extreme and that very little or no hope is entertained for his recovery.

OWING to the late panic we will sell until January 1st, our entire stock at 25 per cent. less than New York cost.

S. HANSTEIN & Co's
New York House,
tf 15 Market st.

OPERA HOUSE.—The Berger Family and Sol. Smith Russel, drew a fine audience last night. The performance was even better than the previous night and the witticisms of Mr. Russell were perfectly overwhelming. We commend this troupe to the favorable consideration of our brethren of the press throughout the South, as a first class combination.

Visitors

SHOULD SEE the finest selection of Watches, French Clocks, Jewelry and Fancy Goods, the largest and finest stock ever brought to this city. Go and see the exhibition this week at the store of 4t GEORGE HONNETT.

CHAPMAN SISTERS.—The talented sisters, Blanch, Ella and Belle, supported by a full company make their appearance at the Opera House to-night. We expect to see the building literally packed. Their local witticisms and fun generally make them favorites among the admirers of burlesque. Lotus and Leo will be presented, and the farce of the "Youth who never saw a woman."

KNOCKED DOWN.—Last night the watchman of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad Company was dealt a pretty severe blow over the left temple with a sling shot, in the hand of a colored man whom he attempted to arrest. The watchman discovered two colored men trying to break into the offices, and went up to arrest them, when one of the scoundrels dealt him a blow with the shot which knocked him down. The thieves made good time and left scot free.

THE TOWN CRIER.

— Plasant.
— Gold is 109⅜.
— City full of roughs.
— Go to the Chapmans.
— Beware of pickpockets.
— Theatre filled last night.
— Many strangers in the city.
— Sol Smith Russell is a brick.
— Hotels doing a fine business.
— Harry Webb's full last night.
— Town criers are dull just now.
— Grange meets next Monday night.
— Race track is now in good order.
— Bro. Franklin, of Weldon, is in the city.
— The tournament promises to be a grand affair.
— Sand has now an opportunity to turn into clay if it will.
— Lots of good clothes are getting ready for the ball Friday night.
— The mineral display at the Fair, from Excelsior Plantation, is good.
— A homicide and a stabbing affair in one evening is considerable for our little city.
— An unfortunate individual at midnight, last night was staggering about looking for a lodging.
— Somebody had twenty elegant camelias given them a few nights since—wish we were somebody.
— The moon didn't get up until pretty near 11 o'clock last night, and then part of it was chopped out.
— Many beautiful faces at the Opera House last night, but they were turned awry when they came down into the hall and found it full of tobacco smoke.

CUTTING AFFRAY.—A white man was stabbed in the abdomen last night on Seventh street. His wounds are reported to be very severe. We could not learn the particulars in time for this evening's issue.

PRIVATE Joseph Auld and buglar William McGuire of Company M, stationed at Smithville arrived this morning with sabres to be used by the Knights in the tournament on Friday.

LAST evening about 6 o'clock a colored boy named Ned Hill was killed in front of Mund's drug store by a pistol in the hands of another boy named James Beatty. It seems that several boys were there assembled, and Beatty was showing his weapon when it was discharged with fatal effect. Beatty has been arrested and lodged in jail.

QUILTING.—A goodly number of our lovely ladies have been busily engaged at the City Hall for the past two days and nights, quilting the quilts intended for the Oxford Orphan Asylum, and have finished all save three, which will be completed some time during the day. They do not, we understand, intend giving the quilt to the Asylum, but proposes to raffle them and the money obtained in this way will be handed to those in charge, to be spent for such things as are most needed by the children of the institution. This is indeed a most plausible and worthy object, and we hope that every one will take chances in the quilts, even if they can have no possible use for them.

KEEP AWAY FROM THEM.—We feel it incumbant upon us to warn visitors to the Fair grounds against the various professionals and gouging games, they play so finely. The officers of the Association are doing all in their power to prevent any swindling, but we would advise all to steer clear of the wheels and any other open and shut games, by which they can be cheated out of all the money they may have. Let visitors bear in mind, that all is not gold that glitters, and if the men who travel around the country did what they promise, they would break themselves and make you rich, but the sad experience of many credulous ones, is exactly vice versa, you are impoverished and they laugh at you for exemplifying the old adage, a fool and his money soon parts.

The Raleigh News speaking of the members of the Legislature who are sick says :—Senator Dunham is still confined to his bed, though gradually recovering.

Representative Stanford is still quite ill but improving. His lady arrived in the city Saturday evening, and is with him at the Yarborough house.

Representative Davis, from Lenoir, who was taken suddenly ill at Goldsboro while en route to this city at the beginning of the session, is still in a critical condition at his residence in Lenoir.

Senator King has so far recovered as to be able to resume his seat it the Senate.

Col. Davie Settle, of Rockingham, and Senator Powell, of Chatham, are both on sick leave of absence.

The Senate will hold night sessions on Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights of each week.

THE FAIR.

SECOND DAY.

The Fair is now in full blast, and thanks to the bright sunshine and magnificent weather, is bound to be a success. The attendance is much larger, and the articles on exhibition are fine and worthy of note. Everything points to a perfect rush to-morrow. A hasty glance through the various departments of the Hall, showed that the ladies had done their duty this year. The display of is unusully large and fine. Large and elegant quilts, the finest of knitting, crochet, embroidery and sewing meet one at every turn. The display of oil painting is unusually large, among them is a collection from the Academy of the Incarnation, six from the very clever pencil of Miss VanBokkelen, who also exhibits some fine wax work, twelve by Mrs. J. C. Mann, etc. Among the fancy articles we notice some very fine specimens by Miss Sallie Cowan, a young lady of but twelve years of age; a rug by Miss Serena Chadbourn, another young Miss; an opera cloak, by Mrs. T. H. Johnson, a handsome chair blanket, by Miss Mary K. Sprunt, fine specimens of embroidery, by Miss A. E. Dunham, of South Carolina; woolen tidy, by Mrs. C. H. King, children's sacques, by Mrs. C. D. Myers, and many others. The eye is bewildered with quantities of quilts, catables, wines, chairs, rugs, etc., etc.

HORTICULTURAL HALL

contains a fine exhibition of goods from our city dealers, among whom are Messrs. Parker & Taylor with lamps, house keeping articles, knives, forks, tin ware, etc. J. H. Allen has a fine display of jewelry. D. A. Smith & Co., an elegant display of furniture. Hart & Bailey a case of brass and iron goods. Heinsberger, with his elegant show of books and chromos, organs and a Knabe square grand, that leads the pianos of its class, Sewing Machines, etc.

AGRICULTURAL HALL

has a fine show of the products of the country and mechanical skill. The Cape Fair Building Company is well represented. Messrs. Giles & Murchison make a fine display of hardware. J. A. Willard exhibits splendid lettuce, cranberries, turnips, radishes, etc. A. Robinson, cotton bolls. The Excelsior Plantation makes a fine exhibit of iron ore, marl, muck, earth paint, cotton, sandstone rock, corn, millet, beans, etc. A. A. McKoy exhibits sugar cane from Sampson county. P. H. Hayden exhibits a fine farm wagon. J. L. Barden & Bro., a lot of handsome barrels. A. A. McKeithan & Sons, fine buggies and harnesses while the display of cotton, hay, etc., is very fine.

The display of horses is the best ever seen here, and there is much other stock, an extended notice of which will appear to-morrow.

The Rose Bud Band furnished the music, and the attendance of the ladies is large. To-morrow we expect a perfect jam.

THE TROTTING MATCH

came off at 2 o'clock. The following horses were entered for purse of $100:

"Buckskin," owned by Mr. Wynn, of Raleigh, drove by Ed. Pomeroy.

"Shoo Fly," owned by T. J. Southerland, and drove by Mr. Trout.

"McDuff," owned and driven by Washington Lamb.

The race was mile heats, best three in five, $60 to the winning horse, $25 to the second and $15 to the third.

The following is the result:

First heat, Buckskin in 3:2.
Second heat, Buckskin in 3:6.
Third heat, drawn.
Fourth heat, Buckskin in 3:9.

The $25 prize was given to "Shoo Fly."

THE PARADE OF STOCK

was the best ever seen at any of our Fairs and was a decided success. The horse show was especially good, though there are great numbers of mules and cattle on the grounds.

As we go to press a running match is the chief attraction and was undoubtedly an interesting affair. The gambling wheels and catch penny operations are the only drawbacks to full enjoyment. The cars were run promptly and satisfactorily to all concerned. The officers are doing their whole duty and promptly arrest all offenders.

Simon Bitting, a colored man living in Statesville, on Monday night of last week, shot and killed another colored man by the name of John Austin, who he was endeavoring to arrest on the charge of burglary. Bitting was presented to the Superior Court, which was then in session. Fined $20 and released.

We hear of the death of J. W. Hodges, of Johnston county, which took place on the evening of the 6th inst.

Governor Caldwell has appointed A. R. McDonald, Esq of Moore county, Solicitor of the Fifth Judical District, vice Neill McKay, resigned.

PROSPECTUS.

THE EVENING POST.

J. C. MANN,

EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

Published every evening, except Sunday, at Five Dollars per Annum.

The POST is designed to reach all classes of citizens, and its subscription price is therefore placed so low as to be within the reach of all. It contains the

LATEST NEWS,

up to the time of going to press,

TELEGRAPHIC,
BY MAIL,
COMMERCIAL AND LOCAL.

It should be in the hands of every man who desires to know what has transpired during the day, and, as it aims to give its publisher hopes it will prove a welcome guest in many families.

RELIABLE INTELLIGENCE,

THE POST

is sprightly without being sensational, and it carefully excludes all objectionable incidents and reports calculated to offend the sensibilities of the most fastidious. As an

Advertising Medium

it claims to be first class. It has a good and constantly increasing circulation, and is read by almost every business man in the city. Politically the POST is UNSWERVINGLY REPUBLICAN.

Its editor having been a consistent member of that party since 1855, through its vicisitudes and triumphs, he claims to speak advisedly when advocating its principles. He is not, however an "extremist," and accords to others what he claims for himself, the right of free thought and of free speech.

THE ADVERTISING RATES of the POST, like its subscription price, are at liberal and at living prices, as an examination of them will show, and it bespeaks a share of public patronage.

THE EVENING POST

is closely identified with the local welfare of the Cape Fear region, and the believers in progress, whether

EDUCATIONAL,
AGRICULTURAL,
MECHANICAL, or COMMERCIAL,

will find an enthusiastic ally in THE POST.

THE POST

is opposed to monopolies, but in favor of internal improvements, and a firm believer in the patronage and support of home enterprises and institutions,

Resolutions

Concerning Bridges over Wilmington and Weldon Railroad in the City of Wilmington, N. C,

WHEREAS, THE "CUT" MADE BY the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company in the construction of their Railroad, where the same crosses or intersects the streets in the city greatly impedes the passage of travellers and tends to the manifest injury of the citizens,

AND WHEREAS, The Board of Aldermen are advised that it is the duty of the said Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company to erect and maintain bridges across such cuts where the same cross or intersect the streets in the city, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN, That in their opinion the public necessity demands the erection of bridges at the following points where the said Railroad intersects the following streets to wit: Second Street, Third Street, Fifth Street, Sixth Street, Seventh Street and MacRae Street.

RESOLVED, That in the opinion of this Board, the width of the bridges over said Railroad cut or excavation on Second Street should be thirty feet wide, on Third Street forty feet wide, on Fifth Street forty feet wide, on Sixth Street Twenty-five feet wide, on Seventh Street, twenty feet wide, on McRae Street twenty feet wide.

RESOLVED, That in the opinion of this Board, the Bridge known as Boney Bridge, where the Railroad crosses Fourth Street, is so narrow as to impede the passage of travellers on the same, and that a bridge of fifty feet wide would be necessary to accommodate the public at that point,

RESOLVED, That the Mayor cause a copy of these Resolutions to be served upon the President or Managing Agent of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company, and that he direct the officer serving the notice to return a copy thereof, with the manner of service, to the office of the Clerk and Treasurer of the City.

The above Preamble and Resolutions were passed by the Board of Aldermen at their meeting November 21st, 1873.

CITY TAXES.

Office Treasurer and Collector,

CITY OF WILMINGTON, N. C., November 20th, 1873.

THE financial requirements of the City are such as to render it absolutely necessary that the amount of City Taxes on Real Estate and Personal Property, due 15th June last, and yet remaining unpaid, should be collected forthwith.

I am therefore directed where the City Taxes are not paid on or before 1st December proximo, to ADVERTISE and SELL AT PUBLIC AUCTION all such property, as no longer indulgence will be given.

THE EVENING POST

is devoted almost exclusively to the prospects of the Cape Fear region. Its columns are always open for the discussion of matters of local interest, that both sides may be understood. It should, therefore, be endorsed and sustained by our citizens of both political parties. Only $5 a year in advance, or fifty cents a month.
